Acquire skills for the future

EDITION

WEEK 31

Weekly News letter

PRINCIPAL'S CORNER

Greetings Students, Staff and Parents/Guardians:

JSBI is an environment for learning and business. In the interest of having a safe, orderly school, which minimizes distractions and maximizes the learning environment, a dress code was established for JSBI. Students are expected to exercise good judgment and good taste regarding their dress and grooming so as to establish a productive school climate

It is not our intent to thwart self-expression or exercise unreasonable control over students; however, current trends seem to favor certain modes of dress which are inappropriate for school. Our students are encouraged to revisit the set rules and regulations regarding dress code.

Now that the students have started receiving their T-shirts, it should be noted that they are only won on Fridays or any other day/ occasion as may be guided by the school Administration. Footwear must be worn at all times while the student is at school or at school sponsored activities. Clothing must be clean and in good repair.

In an effort to address concerns for student safety and welfare, to create a learning environment with minimal distractions, and to reinforce the values of modesty and civility, the administration and the students body will be responsible for enforcing this dress code fairly and reasonably. How important it is to come to school dressed appropriately.

CLASS DELIVERABLE

Joining JSBI has enabled us to acquire master classes on how to become qualified fashion designers.

We came here with totally no knowledge and skills but we are leaving with good memories after attaining good knowledge and skills in production of garments, we could not dare before joining JSBI.

Obituary

On behalf of the JSBI Alumni Association and on our own behalf as JSBI, we fall short of words to express the deep and heartfelt grief that we felt when we learned of the death of our daughter and old student Becky. No one can prepare you for a loss; it comes like a swift wind. However, we take comfort in knowing that you are now resting in the arms of our Lord. Our deepest condolences to you and your family. Rest respectfully.
